

I've read with interest the proposal put forth by NAB. I find it troubling that they are again tryng to limits one's rights. I see this fight no different than the satellite tv operations including local channel access. If you are allowing dish companies to bring in the local signal, you should allow satellite radio to broadcast a local signal.

Thank you

Robert Oxley